

SOCIETY

Nov. 13

Nov. 14

Nov. 15

Nov. 16

Nov. 17

Nov. 18

Nov. 19

Nov. 20

Nov. 21

Nov. 22

Nov. 23

Nov. 24

Nov. 25

Nov. 26

Nov. 27

Nov. 28

Nov. 29

Nov. 30

Dec. 1

Dec. 2

Dec. 3

Dec. 4

Dec. 5

Dec. 6

Dec. 7

Dec. 8

Dec. 9

Dec. 10

Dec. 11

Dec. 12

Dec. 13

Dec. 14

Dec. 15

Dec. 16

Dec. 17

Dec. 18

Dec. 19

Dec. 20

Dec. 21

Dec. 22

Dec. 23

Dec. 24

Dec. 25

Dec. 26

Dec. 27

Dec. 28

Dec. 29

Dec. 30

Dec. 31

Jan. 1

Jan. 2

Jan. 3

Jan. 4

Jan. 5

Jan. 6

Jan. 7

Jan. 8

News of the Churches

CATHOLIC

Nov. 13

Nov. 14

Nov. 15

Nov. 16

Nov. 17

Nov. 18

Nov. 19

Nov. 20

Nov. 21

Nov. 22

Nov. 23

Nov. 24

Nov. 25

Nov. 26

Nov. 27

Nov. 28

Nov. 29

Nov. 30

Dec. 1

Dec. 2

Dec. 3

Dec. 4

Dec. 5

Dec. 6

Dec. 7

Dec. 8

Dec. 9

Dec. 10

Dec. 11

HE CAME TO KILL

by ADELING McELFRESH

Nov. 13

Nov. 14

Nov. 15

Nov. 16

Nov. 17

Nov. 18

Nov. 19

Nov. 20

Nov. 21

Nov. 22

Nov. 23

Nov. 24

Nov. 25

Nov. 26

Nov. 27

Nov. 28

Nov. 29

Nov. 30

Dec. 1

Dec. 2

Dec. 3

Dec. 4

Dec. 5

Dec. 6

Dec. 7

Dec. 8

Dec. 9

Dec. 10

Dec. 11

HE CAME TO KILL

by ADELING McELFRESH

Nov. 13

Nov. 14

Nov. 15

Nov. 16

Nov. 17

Nov. 18

Nov. 19

Nov. 20

Nov. 21

Nov. 22

Nov. 23

Nov. 24

Nov. 25

Nov. 26

Nov. 27

Nov. 28

Nov. 29

Nov. 30

Dec. 1

Dec. 2

Dec. 3

Dec. 4

Dec. 5

Dec. 6

Dec. 7

Dec. 8

Dec. 9

Dec. 10

Dec. 11

Menus

Following are the menus for Hope schools the week of Nov. 13-17.

High School Cafeteria
Monday — Meat Loaf; Whipped Potatoes; English Peas Enriched Bread; Milk.
Tuesday — Sausage; Candied Yams; Black Eyed Peas; Corn Bread; Milk; Cherry Cobbler.
Wednesday — Vegetable soup; Potato Boats; Raw Green Salad; Peanut Butter Sandwich; Milk.
Thursday — Beef Spaghetti; An Gratin; Green Lima Beans; Enriched Bread; Milk.
Friday — Chicken & Dressing; Glazed Carrots; Vegetable Salad; Enriched Bread; Milk.
Junior High and Grade Schools
Monday — Baked Beans; French Fried Potatoes; Corn Bread; Appricots; Milk.
Tuesday — Fish Croquettes; Whipped Potatoes; English Peas; Biscuits; Honey; Milk.
Wednesday — Tomato-Corn Rabbit on Toast; Tossed Green Salad; Ginger Bread & Orange Sauce; Milk.
Thursday — Italian Spaghetti; Carrot Sticks; Whole Wheat Bread; Cherry Cobbler; Milk.

should start out with it at the boiling point.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am head over heels in love with a movie star whom I have never seen except on the screen. I know how silly this is and I am exasperated with myself as I have always been here before a sane, level-headed sort of person. What to do?

Answer: You have plenty of company in your folly, my dear. There are millions of your sisters and your cousins and your aunts who have crushes on movie stars.

And as long as women take out their romance in merely dreaming about their picture lovers no harm is done. It is when they begin pursuing them in the flesh and writing them silly letters that they get themselves into trouble.

Don't worry about this. Your infatuation will pass. After all you can't be permanently in love with a shadow.

(Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Taxpayer Has Final Say, Court Rules

Little Rock, Nov. 13 —(AP) — The Arkansas Supreme court said today taxpayers and not municipal governments have the final say in determining disposition of surplus taxes collected for payment of bonds.

In affirming an Arkansas county Chancery court decision, the Supreme court said in a 4-3 decision, that an attempt by a city or county to bypass refund of the surplus to the taxpayers violates the state constitution.

Associate Justices George Rose Smith, Robert A. Lefleur and Edw. Dunaway disagreed with the majority opinion. They said "that practically every city and county will suffer from today's decision."

The majority opinion, written by Associate Justice J. S. Holt said that amendment 15 to the constitution forbids use of tax money raised for a specific purpose, for any other or different purpose.

And, the opinion said in effect, that wherever a surplus exists after a bonded indebtedness has been paid off the money must be repaid to the taxpayers whenever any taxpayer's claim can be regarded as substantial.

Friday — Soup Peanut Butter Sandwich; Corn Bread; Raisin Roll with Vanilla Sauce; Milk.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial membranes. Guaranteed to please you or money refunded. Creomulsion has stood the test of millions of users.

CREOMULSION relieves Coughs, Chest Colds, Acute Bronchitis

DOROTHY DIX

No Pity for Age

Dear Miss Dix: I am a woman of 37 with two children 12 and 13 years of age. My marriage is fairly happy — or would be, except for the problem of my mother. She is 60 years, a widow, and beginning to fail in health. When I was married she was financially independent, but, due to foolish investments and general dismanagement, she has lost every penny. My husband is very well off, but he absolutely refuses to help my mother. I have charge accounts everywhere, but I never have any money of my own, so the most I can give my mother is a few dollars a month and her clothes. I can't endure seeing my mother in need while I live in a beautiful home. Once I tried bringing my mother to my home, but we were miserable because my husband treated her so insultingly. I have wondered if it is my duty to try to get a job of some kind, although I am completely without training, in order to give money to my mother. This would wreck my married life because my husband would never forgive me. He would divorce me and take the children. But what else can I do?

A HEARTBROKEN WIFE

Answer: The only solution that I see to your problem is for you to put your mother in some semi-charitable institution where the cost of her maintenance would be so small that your husband would be willing to pay it to save further family arguments. Perhaps your mother will object to this arrangement, but it will hurt her pride less to be in a home for old ladies than it will to be in your home knowing that her presence there is resented.

Taking Job Impractical
Your plan of going out into the world to work in order to support your mother is a beautiful gesture of filial devotion. It does honor to your heart, but your head must tell you that it is impracticable. You are utterly untrained for any career and you could not in all probability get a job at all. On the other hand, you have your duty to your children, which is greater than that to your mother. You will wreck their lives if you break up their home and deprive them of a mother's love and guidance. Your mother's life is nearly over, there is just beginning and they need you now in their formative years more than they will ever need you again. So your duty is clear. It is to carry on, no matter at what cost to yourself.

But what a cruel thing it is in a husband, what an unjust and dastardly thing it is in him to refuse to let his wife help her old mother, and how little he must value his wife's love and respect when he does a thing to her that makes her see him as a selfish grinding tyrant with no thought for her happiness and no pity for helpless age.

Let us hope that something will

First Christian

Nov. 13

Nov. 14

Nov. 15

Nov. 16

Nov. 17

Nov. 18

Nov. 19

Nov. 20

Nov. 21

Nov. 22

Nov. 23

Nov. 24

Nov. 25

DOROTHY DIX

No Pity for Age

Dear Miss Dix: I am a woman of 37 with two children 12 and 13 years of age. My marriage is fairly happy — or would be, except for the problem of my mother. She is 60 years, a widow, and beginning to fail in health. When I was married she was financially independent, but, due to foolish investments and general dismanagement, she has lost every penny. My husband is very well off, but he absolutely refuses to help my mother. I have charge accounts everywhere, but I never have any money of my own, so the most I can give my mother is a few dollars a month and her clothes. I can't endure seeing my mother in need while I live in a beautiful home. Once I tried bringing my mother to my home, but we were miserable because my husband treated her so insultingly. I have wondered if it is my duty to try to get a job of some kind, although I am completely without training, in order to give money to my mother. This would wreck my married life because my husband would never forgive me. He would divorce me and take the children. But what else can I do?

A HEARTBROKEN WIFE

Answer: The only solution that I see to your problem is for you to put your mother in some semi-charitable institution where the cost of her maintenance would be so small that your husband would be willing to pay it to save further family arguments. Perhaps your mother will object to this arrangement, but it will hurt her pride less to be in a home for old ladies than it will to be in your home knowing that her presence there is resented.

Taking Job Impractical
Your plan of going out into the world to work in order to support your mother is a beautiful gesture of filial devotion. It does honor to your heart, but your head must tell you that it is impracticable. You are utterly untrained for any career and you could not in all probability get a job at all. On the other hand, you have your duty to your children, which is greater than that to your mother. You will wreck their lives if you break up their home and deprive them of a mother's love and guidance. Your mother's life is nearly over, there is just beginning and they need you now in their formative years more than they will ever need you again. So your duty is clear. It is to carry on, no matter at what cost to yourself.

But what a cruel thing it is in a husband, what an unjust and dastardly thing it is in him to refuse to let his wife help her old mother, and how little he must value his wife's love and respect when he does a thing to her that makes her see him as a selfish grinding tyrant with no thought for her happiness and no pity for helpless age.

Let us hope that something will

First Christian

Nov. 13

Nov. 14

Nov. 15

Nov. 16

Nov. 17

Nov. 18

Nov. 19

Nov. 20

Nov. 21

Nov. 22

Nov. 23

Nov. 24

Nov. 25

DOROTHY DIX

No Pity for Age

Dear Miss Dix: I am a woman of 37 with two children 12 and 13 years of age. My marriage is fairly happy — or would be, except for the problem of my mother. She is 60 years, a widow, and beginning to fail in health. When I was married she was financially independent, but, due to foolish investments and general dismanagement, she has lost every penny. My husband is very well off, but he absolutely refuses to help my mother. I have charge accounts everywhere, but I never have any money of my own, so the most I can give my mother is a few dollars a month and her clothes. I can't endure seeing my mother in need while I live in a beautiful home. Once I tried bringing my mother to my home, but we were miserable because my husband treated her so insultingly. I have wondered if it is my duty to try to get a job of some kind, although I am completely without training, in order to give money to my mother. This would wreck my married life because my husband would never forgive me. He would divorce me and take the children. But what else can I do?

A HEARTBROKEN WIFE

Answer: The only solution that I see to your problem is for you to put your mother in some semi-charitable institution where the cost of her maintenance would be so small that your husband would be willing to pay it to save further family arguments. Perhaps your mother will object to this arrangement, but it will hurt her pride less to be in a home for old ladies than it will to be in your home knowing that her presence there is resented.

Taking Job Impractical
Your plan of going out into the world to work in order to support your mother is a beautiful gesture of filial devotion. It does honor to your heart, but your head must tell you that it is impracticable. You are utterly untrained for any career and you could not in all probability get a job at all. On the other hand, you have your duty to your children, which is greater than that to your mother. You will wreck their lives if you break up their home and deprive them of a mother's love and guidance. Your mother's life is nearly over, there is just beginning and they need you now in their formative years more than they will ever need you again. So your duty is clear. It is to carry on, no matter at what cost to yourself.

But what a cruel thing it is in a husband, what an unjust and dastardly thing it is in him to refuse to let his wife help her old mother, and how little he must value his wife's love and respect when he does a thing to her that makes her see him as a selfish grinding tyrant with no thought for her happiness and no pity for helpless age.

Let us hope that something will

First Christian

Nov. 13

Nov. 14

Nov. 15

Nov. 16

Nov. 17

Nov. 18

Nov. 19

Nov. 20

Nov. 21

Nov. 22

Nov. 23

Nov. 24

Nov. 25

DOROTHY DIX

No Pity for Age

Dear Miss Dix: I am a woman of 37 with two children 12 and 13 years of age. My marriage is fairly happy — or would be, except for the problem of my mother. She is 60 years, a widow, and beginning to fail in health. When I was married she was financially independent, but, due to foolish investments and general dismanagement, she has lost every penny. My husband is very well off, but he absolutely refuses to help my mother. I have charge accounts everywhere, but I never have any money of my own, so the most I can give my mother is a few dollars a month and her clothes. I can't endure seeing my mother in need while I live in a beautiful home. Once I tried bringing my mother to my home, but we

CLASSIFIED

Ads Must Be in Office Day Before Publication

One Day	Three Days	Six Days	One Month
10c	25c	45c	1.00
20c	50c	90c	1.80
30c	75c	1.20	2.50
40c	1.00	1.50	3.50
50c	1.25	1.75	4.50
60c	1.50	2.00	5.50
70c	1.75	2.25	6.50
80c	2.00	2.50	7.50
90c	2.25	2.75	8.50
1.00	2.50	3.00	9.50
1.10	2.75	3.25	10.50
1.20	3.00	3.50	11.50
1.30	3.25	3.75	12.50
1.40	3.50	4.00	13.50
1.50	3.75	4.25	14.50
1.60	4.00	4.50	15.50

Rates are for Continuous Insertions Only

Want Ads Cash in Advance

Taken Over the Phone

Hope Star

Published every weekday afternoon by

STUART, Publisher, President

Address: 1122 S. Main Street, Hope, Ark.

Phone 888

Editor: J. W. Washburn, Secy-Treas.

Address: 1122 S. Main Street, Hope, Ark.

Phone 888

Manager: J. W. Washburn, Editor & Publisher

Address: 1122 S. Main Street, Hope, Ark.

Phone 888

Second class matter of

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Post Office of Hope, Arkansas

Post Office of March 3, 1937

Postmaster: J. W. Washburn

Fair Enough

By Westbrook Pegler
Copyright, 1939
By King Features Syndicate.

I may seem to be laboring the case of the non-sectarian anti-Nazi league and the society for the prevention of World War III, but I should like to explain that these two organizations together constitute a force of the most sinister potentialities.

The one operates a gun-shoe detective service whose secret agents plant themselves in confidential jobs and resort to black treachery against trusting employers whom they are out to "get" for any reasons sufficient to the league. The other group, the society for the prevention of World War III, abuses individuals who disagree with the Morgenthau plan to turn over to the military forces of Soviet Russia all Germany, and eventually all Europe.

Under the Morgenthau plan, the armed forces of the United States and Great Britain would have been taken out of Germany long ago, leaving the military occupation to Germany's "continental neighbors." The late Harry Dexter White is believed by some persons to have written the Morgenthau plan. He was named in testimony as one of the Communist traitors who were planted in the government. This plan would have been consistent with the duties of a man in that role. However, it Morgenthau has changed his mind about the wisdom of turning all Europe over to Russia without resistance, as some other members of the society for the prevention of war, he has said nothing about it.

Because the membership of the society is secret, one is unable to poll the members to learn who has quit. However, I have been in touch with a few individuals and observe with interest that all but one of them have quit the society.

Norman Littell, a new deal Washington lawyer, was attorney for Isidor Lipschutz, the financial backer of both groups, and testified for him as a character witness in his naturalization process. Littell resigned two years ago. He Littell kept up with its activities so he could not conscientiously continue to lend his name. He said it was news to him that Lipschutz's anti-Nazi league employed professional sneaks to spy on individuals and organizations. He had never heard of Dorothy Waring, Richard Rollins, Joseph Brandt, or Mario Buzzi, who were employed for such work by the league.

When I inquired whether knowledge of these facts would change his opinion of Lipschutz he said he would not approve of anything wrong. He did not meet the question head-on.

"It has always been my impression that Lipschutz was the principal financial backer of the society for the prevention of World War III," he said. When he was told that Mark Van Doren, a Columbia professor listed as chairman of the board of the society, professed not to know whether it had a constitution, how it raised its money or whether there was a physical list of members, Mr. Littell said: "I am astonished. I think he may have been trying to evade the inquiry."

He volunteered no possible reason why a pretentious intellectual teaching in Columbia university, or any reasonably honest man, should not tell the truth about the society. Van Doren is listed in connection with many organizations of the un-American activities.

He thought Lipschutz was a very brave man. As to the source of his wealth, he said Lipschutz was the head of the "diamond syndicate" in Europe and had been cited by King Leopold of Belgium.

"My opinion on the rearming of Germany is changing," he said. "We have got a new menace on the east."

The league savagely opposes proposals to rearm Germany and reacts angrily even to proposals to treat the German people humanely.

Herbert Bayard sowed, of New York, said he had resigned. He was sympathetic with the efforts of high commissioner John J. McCloy in Germany and he believed the society held that all who disagree with it were "evil."

He agreed with it. "Germany should now be rearmed," he said. "I have believed that the new situation. He said he had always been skeptical concerning Mr. Lipschutz.

Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, of Washington, said she resigned in the spring of this year "because they got out something I didn't like."

"I didn't go along with them latterly," she said. "I think they went too far." She said she had never heard of any espionage activities by the anti-Nazi league such as are revealed in past congressional hearings and in writings by the league's detectives.

Edgar Ansel Mowrer, of Washington, a journalist of long foreign experience, said he resigned because "in view of the developing situation it no longer had a useful purpose."

Although he is an "observer" of affairs, he had never heard of or read of espionage by the non-sectarian league, which has been published, however, for years.

Louis Bromfield, who is listed on the society's "advisory council" this year, wrote:

"I have no records of having given my name but it is not impossible. A great many of these people send a letter saying that if I do not hear from you I will assume it is agreeable. I do not know where you could get a state-

Aggies' Smith. Best Running Back in Loop

Dallas, Nov. 13.—(P)—Southern Methodist's Fred Benner may be making his the easiest but Texas A. and M.'s Bob Smith is getting better results.

Smith, the mighty, Aggie fullback, lacks only one yard of gaining as much running with the ball as Benner has by passing.

They are the leaders in the most important departments.

Smith has rooled up 1124 yards on 151 carries, averaging 7.4 yards per run. Benner has thrown 144 passes and completed 84 for 1125 yards.

Smith has made 84 points while Benner has passed for 54.

The Aggie fullback also is the conference's total offense leader, his 1124 yards rushing beating any combination of rushing and passing.

Bill Tidwell of Texas A. and M. is second in rushing with 624 yards on 159 carries. Larry Isbell of Baylor is runner-up in passing with 71 connections in 147 throws for 948 yards. Isbell tops in touchdown throws with 12.

Isbell also leads in punting with an average of 41.1 on 47 kicks. Louie Schaefer of Arkansas is second in punting with 40.0 on 43 boots.

Hal Riley of Baylor is the top punter in pass-receiving. He has caught 29 for 458 yards.

Yale Lary is the leader in punt returns, averaging 24.1 yards on eight runs.

Texas A. and M. has romped and passed to 3159 yards to lead in team offense. Defensively Texas is tops, allowing 257 yards per game.

National Loop Still Unsettled

New York, Nov. 13.—(P)—With one month of the season remaining, the National Football league found itself all scrambled up today with no less than six teams in a red hot battle for championship honors.

The won and lost figures in both divisions are exactly the same for the leaders after Sunday's six-game program. Cleveland's Browns still are leading the American conference, while the Los Angeles Rams displaced the New York Yanks atop the National group.

If the Rams want to stay in the lead, they've got a tough job next Sunday in the league's big game, when they meet New York at Yankee stadium.

Los Angeles eased into first place by blasting the Green Bay Packers, 45-14, at Milwaukee while the Bears tamed New York's Yanks before 50,000 cheering fans packed into Wrigley field at Chicago, 28-20.

The Cleveland Browns had a rough time for three periods before subduing the San Francisco 49ers, 34-14, at Cleveland. At New York, the Giants pulverized the Chicago Cardinals, 51-21; the Philadelphia Eagles blanked the Redskins at Washington, 33-0; and the Steelers defeated the Baltimore Colts at Pittsburgh, 17-7.

Mrs. Lynn Harrell, has returned from Mineral Wells, Texas, where she spent the last week.

Prof. S. D. Dickinson, of Conway was the week-end guest of his mother, Mrs. S. D. Dickinson, Sr.

Jack Hardy of Tyler, Texas, spent the week-end here visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hardy.

Mrs. Joe Hamilton and Jack Hardy visited friends and relatives in Camden Saturday evening.

Colyer B. Cox, of Hot Springs spent a few hours in Prescott Sunday morning enroute to Hope, where he visited relatives.

Mrs. Dudley Rouse honored her little daughter Karen Ann, Thursday afternoon November 8 with a birthday party, at her home on East Main street.

After all the little guest had assembled, favors of balloons, suckers, and gum, were given to each child. The lovely birthday cake topped with four candles was cut and served with ice cream after Karl Ann, had blown out the candles, and Happy Birthday was sung. Guests were: Ann Morgan, Claudia Price, Cynthia Arnold, George Jr. Stegar, Barry Beth Bryson, Ruth Hairston, Mildred Buchanan, Marsha Buchanan, Mary Gail Rodger, Carolyn Daniels, Alex Gordon Greg Buchanan, Jerry Ingram, Billy Coe, Frankie Anderson, Mack Hayes, of Okla., George Hamilton Christopher Jr., Mily Pittman, Gilbert Johnson, Andy Bemis, and Bill Justiss.

Miss Artie Gee spent the week-end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Gee.

ment of the financial affairs of the society. I have just about come to the conclusion that it is impossible to give one's name to an organization which bores the sun will rise tomorrow."

Van Doren had said that his interest was attracted to the society by Rex Stout, and to some extent overlapping, propaganda front. Stout, however, said he had recently resigned from the official roster of the society but had not resigned his membership. He had never heard of espionage by the anti-Nazi league. He asked for documentary references, which were given, and indicated that he would strongly repudiate such practices. However, against that declaration lies the fact that his own friends of democracy employed a phony detective and notorious professional liar known by the alias of John Roy Carlson, United States judge John P. Barnes, of Chicago, condemned Carlson as "a wholly irresponsible person who was willing to say anything for money."

"I wouldn't believe him on oath," Judge Barnes added, "now or at any time hereafter."

Court Docket

City Docket

Cline Compton — Reckless driving, forfeited $25 cash bond.

Robert Franks, Dale Hattfield — Speeding, forfeited $5 cash bond.

Ola Mae Hart — Driving while drunk, forfeited $75 cash bond, driver's license revoked for 30 days.

Jess Atkins, Osie Johnson — Drunkenness, plea guilty, fined $10.

Costello Wesson, John Cleveland — Drunkenness, plea guilty, fined $10.

Willie B. Sanders — Assault & Battery, forfeited $10. cash bond.

Charlie Johnson — Assault & Battery, plea guilty, fined $10.

Carl Turner — Disturbing peace, plea guilty, fined $10.

J. T. Thomas — Disturbing peace, forfeited $10. cash bond.

Joe Vaughn — Transporting more than 1-gallon of intoxicating liquor, forfeited $100. cash bond.

Mrs. C. H. Moxley — Possessing intoxicating liquor for sale, forfeited $50. cash bond.

Elridge Cassidy — Possessing intoxicating liquor for sale, forfeited $50. cash bond.

Dola Straughter — Possessing untaxed intoxicating liquor, forfeited $100 cash bond.

Gerald Lindsey — Gaming, plea guilty, fined $10.

The following forfeited $10 bond each on a charge of Gaming:

Harold Sanders, Eddie Caple, Joe Walker, Prentiss McFadden, Joe Johnson, Joe Maxwell, Fred Weatherspoon, James Harris.

John P. Vesey — Incorrect parking, forfeited $1 cash bond.

Sarah Williams — No Driver's license, forfeited $5 cash bond.

Weaver Atkins — No Driver's license, forfeited $5 cash bond.

State Docket

E. G. Gill — Overload, forfeited $25 cash bond.

George Frimus — False pretense, forfeited $5 cash bond.

William Ponderter — Operating a motor vehicle without state license, forfeited $5 cash bond.

W. H. Fairchild — Operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, forfeited $25 cash bond and driver's license revoked for 30 days.

Willie Waller — Passing another car on a hill, forfeited $5 cash bond.

Irene Bland — Selling untaxed beer, forfeited $50 cash bond.

Top Radio Programs

New York, Nov. 13.—(P)—Listening tonight (Monday):

NBC—6:45 One Man's Family; 8:30 Symphony, Erich Leinsdorf. Conducting.

CBS—7 Hollywood Playhouse; 8 Betty Grable in "Wabash Ave. nue"; 9:30 Bob Hawk Quiz; 10:30 Recording of Benson Ford address.

ABC—6:30 Lone Ranger; 7:30 In the Sanctum; 8:30 Chas. E. Wilson receiving Wharton Alumni Award; 9:30 Johnny Desmond; 9:30 United or Not.

MBS—10:30 a. m. Queen for this year; 7:30 Crime Fighters; 8:30 Korean Report.

Tuesday Times: NBC—10:30 a. m. Jack Bench show; 1:30 p. m. Live Like a Millionaire. CBS—1:15 Perry Mason; 3 Strike It Rich. ABC—11 Luncheon club; 2 p. m. Chance of Lifetime.

MBS—10:30 a. m. Queen for this year; 1 p. m. Gabriel Heatter's.

The Department of Agriculture says veins visible on a cow's udder do not necessarily indicate the amount of milk she will give.

Bobcat 'B' Team to Play Magnolia Here

In the season's final game the Bobcat "B" team will tangle with the Magnolia seconds Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in Hammond Stadium.

The starting lineup for the local boys: Ends, Williams and Barber; Trappers, Camps and Wiggins; Guards, Doyle and Byers; Center, Barabec, Backs, Marlin, England, Arnold and Bright.

Tigers Eke Out Win Over Little Rock

The Yerger Tigers eked out a 7-0 victory over the Dunbar Bearcats of Little Rock here Friday night. Isaiah Stuart, Fullback, scored the only touchdown of the game and James "Pete" Moss kicked the extra point, which was his eighth straight.

Outstanding players for Yerger were I. Stuart, Straughter, Turney, Phillips and Williamson.

On Friday, November 24, the Tigers will journey to El Dorado to play the El Dorado Hornets.

Vote Bungling

Continued from Page One

Officially about that omission by the Wayne county board of canvassers, still busy rechecking tallies in populous Detroit. They must publicly recognize their errors so the corrected totals can be made official.

Official returns now are in for 76 of the 83 counties in Michigan. That figure, however, does not include either Wayne or Macomb counties, both largely urban.

The totals to date, using the official returns and most accurate unofficial returns from the remaining seven counties, are:

Kelly (R) 934,829

Williams (D) 934,522

Canvassers have estimated it will be Wednesday before the 1,748 precincts in Wayne county can be completed and certified.

Then it may be apparent who won the race. But there's still strong likelihood of a recount.

That would cost the party that asks it $5 for each of the state's 4,361 precincts — and $21,800 apparently is an almost prohibitive cost to both parties. Each spent heavily in a hard fought campaign.

Some state leaders had proposed that the state bear the cost in view of the widespread errors discovered.

TO PLAY AT PROULD

Paragould, Nov. 13.—(P)—Representatives of McCrory and Paragould high schools have agreed their football teams will meet here Nov. 24 in the first round of Arkansas' Class A playoffs. McCrory is champion of District two. Paragould is the District three champion.

Some of the yew trees still growing in England are over 10 feet in diameter and estimated to be over 1,200 years old.

ONE NAME TO REMEMBER WHEN YOU BUY ASPIRIN, IT'S

St. Joseph

ASPIRIN

Carburetor Too Rich

Makes Motorist Too Poor

Car owners who are wasting money and not getting proper gas mileage due to over-rich mixtures will be pleased to learn of a Wisconsin inventor who has developed a very clever unit that helps save gasoline by "Vacu-mating."

It is automatic and operates on the supercharge principle. Easily installed in a few minutes. Fits all cars, trucks and tractors. The all cars, trucks and tractors. The all cars, trucks and tractors. The all cars, trucks and tractors.

Carburetor Co., 7617 700 W. State St., Wauwatosa, Wis., are offering a Vacu-matic to anyone who will install it on his car and help introduce it to others. They will gladly send full free particulars if you write them or just send your name and address on a penny post card today.

WANTED TO BUY

Bourbon Heading Bolts

For Price and Information

See MR. GRAY

THE CALVERT

HEADING MILL

Phone 859 Hope, Arkansas

REMEMBER

You are Always Welcome at a Stuart's Store.

We Are Always Ready to Help You Save Money.

THE NEW DEAL IS HERE

Hunts — In Heavy Syrup — Halves

PEACHES No. 2 22½c

Folgers — Mountain Grown

COFFEE Vacuum Sealed 1 lb. Can 79c

Fresh Stock

PURE LARD 4 Lb. Crt. 69c

Scott County

HOMINY No. 2 Can Each 7½c